University of Lethbridge highlights for the week of May 7 to 13

The University of Lethbridge has several events lined up this week that may be of interest to your readers, viewers and listeners. Members of the media who are interested in covering these events are encouraged to contact the individual event organizer directly.

I Thought About it While Laying on the Floor opening reception

Friday, May 11, 7 p.m., Dr. Foster James Penny Building, 324 5 St. S.

This exhibition highlights the work of two U of L students, Grace Wirzba and Angeline Simon, as part of their Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art Studio degrees. Wirzba explores her personal intimacy with architectural spaces as part of her feminist practice. Simon focuses on consumption, accumulation and the remains of domestic spaces in her work.

Culture Vulture: Sculpt

Saturday, May 12, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., Atrium, University Centre for the Arts

Anyone who wants to learn how to make a stop-motion video is invited to this session of Culture Vulture. Participants will be making clay characters and backdrops out of recycled materials to use in creating their videos. Those attending are asked to bring a phone or tablet to capture their movie. Free apps for stop-motion include Imotion or Stop Motion Studio.
