

PUBLIC Professor

SERIES

A Spirited Conversation.

The University of Lethbridge is proud to present the PUBLIC Professor Series, a monthly, thought-provoking lecture series that brings a range of experts and researchers from across the arts and sciences to the community for a spirited conversation.

Join University of Lethbridge modern languages and linguistics professor, Dr. Alain Takam, as he explores

Translating in a context of official bilingualism: idiomaticity or interference?

Most teachers and educators, translators and interpreters look at interference as a serious language mistake. Translators and educators, in particular, are normally enjoined to guard against such misuses that threaten the integrity of a specific language and its culture. This prescriptive point of view, which stems from de Saussure's structural approach to language, does not seem to be tenable in a situation of social and official bilingualism.

All who register & attend this talk will be entered into a draw to win a $100 gift card to the Italian Table, our long time partner in the delivery of this series. Must be in attendance to win.

November 25, 2021 | 7 p.m.

This talk will be hosted ONLINE and LIVE. Free. Everyone welcome.

REGISTER at pps-takam.eventbrite.ca

Registration is required to access secure login information.

Learn more about the PUBLIC Professor Series, visit:

ulethbridge.ca/arts/publicprofessor

University of
Lethbridge

PUBLIC Professor

SERIES

A Spirited Conversation.

The University of Lethbridge is proud to present the PUBLIC Professor Series, a monthly, thought-provoking lecture series that brings a range of experts and researchers from across the arts and sciences to the community for a spirited conversation.

Join University of Lethbridge modern languages and linguistics professor, Dr. Alain Takam, as he explores

Translating in a context of official bilingualism: idiomaticity or interference?

Most teachers and educators, translators and interpreters look at interference as a serious language mistake. Translators and educators, in particular, are normally enjoined to guard against such misuses that threaten the integrity of a specific language and its culture. This prescriptive point of view, which stems from de Saussure's structural approach to language, does not seem to be tenable in a situation of social and official bilingualism.

All who register & attend this talk will be entered into a draw to win a $100 gift card to the Italian Table, our long time partner in the delivery of this series. Must be in attendance to win.

November 25, 2021 | 7 p.m.

This talk will be hosted ONLINE and LIVE.

Free. Everyone welcome.

REGISTER at pps-takam.eventbrite.ca

Registration is required to access secure login information.

Learn more about the PUBLIC Professor Series, visit:

ulethbridge.ca/artsci/publicprofessor

University of Lethbridge

