MODL 2850 – German Culture and Language
Summer Session 2017      May 8 – Jun 19
MW- 9:00 – 11:50 am      Room: B 730
Instructor: S. Dudley – Steffi.dudley@uleth.ca

Planning to visit a German speaking country? Interested in a different culture? Or maybe you have German ancestry? Whatever the reason: Let's learn German!

This course is an introduction to German language and culture and requires no previous knowledge. Participants will learn to express themselves and ask questions in German through a series of situational and cultural topics. As your vocabulary and German listening comprehension increases, grammatical structures will be introduced and practiced individually and in groups. This class is taught by a native German speaker which will allow participants to hear and mimic standard German pronunciation. Participants will have the opportunity to use and practice their newly acquired language skills immediately while discovering the many different and interesting facets of German language and culture.
