

NOW SEEKING NOMINATIONS

Distinguished Teaching AWARD

The Distinguished Teaching Award recognizes the central importance of teaching to the philosophy and goals of the University of Lethbridge and provides recognition to those members of the academic staff who excel in teaching.

Deadline for nominations:

December 16, 2019

The award is open to all full- and part-time members of the academic staff who have taught at the university for at least two years. Nominations are welcome from any member of the University community, including students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

For nomination forms, contact:
