

HistoriCity Essay Award

Celebrating excellence in historical research.

Leading up to the University's 50th anniversary in 2017, U of L alumnus Terry Whitehead (BA '94) established the HistoriCity Essay Award to encourage excellence in historical research on the City of Lethbridge and the University of Lethbridge.

Call for submissions

The competition is open to all U of L students in good academic standing at the competition closing date. One entry per student.

Submitted essays must be part of an independent study or third or fourth year coursework completed at the University of Lethbridge. Students can drop off a hardcopy of their essay to Bev Garnett (UHall A812).

Prizes

First prize of $750 | Second prize of $250

Entries due by May 1 2018

Learn more, visit: ulethbridge.ca/artsci/historicity

University of Lethbridge

