

Department of History Graduate Student Colloquium

Friday,
March 3, 2017

D-632

3:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Everyone is welcome.

Come join us for a showcase of our graduate students' research

Rae Stauffer - *Early modern Edinburgh:
Identifying the spatial and social relationships of Childhood and Youth.*

Paul Esau - *Love not the Sword for its
Sharpness: Arms Control and the Just War Tradition.*

Elaine Toth - *Childhood Agency: Life Stories of Post-Second World War Dutch Immigrant
Children to Alberta.*

Shannon Ingram - Lost Voices: Capturing the Lived Experiences of Accessing Abortion in Alberta, 1969 - 1988.