INDG4850

COURSE OFFERING

Winter 2026

Indigenous Erotica as Embodied Sovereignty

This seminar will use literature, art, pop culture, and sport to look at 2 inter-related topics:

- How the suppression and manipulation of Indigenous sexuality and erotica was/is part of colonization
- How Indigenous sexuality and erotica is currently being expressed by Indigenous women, men, and 2-spirited peoples as part of resurgence and sovereignty

Textbooks:

- Me Sexy: An Exploration of Native American Sexuality
- Nedi Nezu: Good Medicine
- RezErect: Native Erotica

Prerequisites: INDG1000 or INDG1010 AND Two courses (6.0 credit hours) in Indigneous Studies AND 3rd year standing (a minimum 60.0 credit hours)

Monday | Wednesday
10:30am - 11:45am

Room W401
Instructor: Dr. Tara Million

University of Lethbridge