

Indigenous Awareness Days

March 2019

Everyone is invited to share, learn and celebrate Indigenous culture by attending the following events hosted by various organizations.

For more information contact Maria Livingston maria.lamouche@uleth.ca 403.332.4455

Friday March 1st:

Informal Introduction to Indigenous Awareness Days: Q & A Lunch & Learn

Anderson Hall AH 116, 12 – 1pm
Graduate Students Association & Indigenous Student Affairs

Deconstructing to Decolonize: Dr. Roberta Lexier

L1170 A, 1:30- 3 pm
Teaching Centre

Monday March 4th:

Offer of Prayer with a Pipe

likasskini Gathering Place (PC100), 9 am
Indigenous Student Affairs & Dhillon School of Business

Culture & Community Resource Fair

Students Union Ballrooms, 11am – 3pm
Indigenous Student Affairs

Tuesday March 5th:

Elders Perspectives: Indigenous Identity & Importance of Education

Students Union Ballroom A, 10 am – 4 pm
Indigenous Student Affairs

Canadian Indigenous Negotiations: Mike Bruised

Head, PhD Candidate

Markin Hall M1030, 12- 1:30 pm
Dhillon School of Business
Stew & Bannock will be served

Wednesday March 6th:

KAIROS Blanket Exercise

Markin Hall Atrium, 10 am – 12 pm
Indigenous Student Affairs

Blackfoot Homes Presentation

Galt museum, 10:30 am – 12pm
Galt Museum & Archives, Blanche Bruised Head

Beading Workshop

U of L Main Gallery (W600) 1 – 4 pm
University of Lethbridge Art Gallery

Indigenous Panel Discussion: Culture & Current Events

Students Union Ballroom B, 3pm
First Nations, Metis & Inuit Students Association

Thursday March 7th:

Berry Soup and Bannock

University Hall Atrium, 11 am – 1pm
First Nations Transition Program

Medicine Bag Making (max. 50 participants)

University Hall Atrium, 11:30 – 2pm
Faculty of Health Sciences

Provincial Court Justice -Karen Crow Shoe: Journey Leading to P.C.J. Appointment

PE 250, 7 pm
University of Lethbridge Iniskim Indigenous Alumni Chapter
Informal Meet & Greet, refreshments provided

Blackfoot Language Classes

Galt Museum, 7 pm
Galt Museum & Archives, Julius Delaney

Friday March 8th

In This Place: Indigenizing the Classroom and Smudging

Turcotte Hall TH 204, 11 am – 12 pm
Graduate Students' Association & Indigenous Student Affairs

The Linguists: Film screening

University Hall A414, 1 pm
Department of Indigenous Studies

Tuesday March 12th

Indigenizing to Transform Health Education:

Dr. Verna Billy-Minnabarriet

Markin Hall Atrium, 7pm
Faculty of Health Sciences

Friday March 15th:

Mapping the Metis Homeland

likasskini Gathering Place (PC 100), 1 – 5 pm
Canada Research Chair in Indigenous Music, Culture & Politics,
U of L Outreach & Knowledge Mobilization Fund,
Faculty of Arts & Science