

NATIONAL INDIGENOUS VETERANS DAY

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8

1-3 P.M.

I I K A I S S K I N I (LOW HORN)

GATHERING CENTRE

Join us in recognition of Indigenous Veterans

Featuring guest speaker and Indigenous Veteran JR Fox

JR Fox, son of Lambert Fox and the late Yvonne Fox, was born and raised in southern Alberta on the Blood Indian Reserve. Fox was a United States Marine from 1999-2007 and was deployed during Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2003. He also served as a police officer with Blood Tribe Police Service and other police agencies.

Fox has received several awards due to his leadership skills, extensive training and work experience. Additionally, he has received the rights to conduct capturing ceremonies for a headdress transfer and to paint horses for other ceremonies. He currently works for the Blood Tribe and owns/operates a catering/security company.

Recently, JR Fox was the individual who captured Dr. Digvir Jayas, for the Headdress transfer ceremony during the presidential installation.

Opening prayer & smudge with Elder Francis First Charger.

Beverages and light
refreshments provided.

I I K A I S S K I N I
INDIGENOUS SERVICES

in partnership with the Indigenous Wellness
Wednesday initiative