

University of Lethbridge

KINESIOLOGY & PHYSICAL EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL NIGHT AND HART CANTELON DISTINGUISHED LECTURE

Thursday, Feb. 27, 2025

Room: PE275

Pizza will be provided

REGISTRATION REQUIRED

PROFESSIONAL NIGHT | 4:30-6:00 p.m.

Join us for a Q & A with our panel of professionals

Dr. Lee Schaefer, Associate Professor University of Saskatchewan, College of Kinesiology
Hart Cantelton Distinguished Lecturer.

Matthew Okrainec, Physiotherapist, Practice Director, and Strength and Conditioning Specialist
The Bridge Sports Therapy and Training.

Sara Scott, Head Athletic Therapist, University of Lethbridge - Pronghorn Athletics

Dr. Jackson Purvis, Chiropractor, Strength and Conditioning Specialist.
The Bridge Sports Therapy and Training

HART CANTELON DISTINGUISHED LECTURE | 6:00-7:30 p.m.

'Multiple Stories of Physical Activity: Integrating Social Justice, Land-Based
Learning, and Community Engagement'

Associate Professor at University of Saskatchewan, College of Kinesiology, Dr. Lee Schaefer's research is addressing systemic racism and sexism that creates barriers to movement, such as physical activities and organized sports.

