

Indigenizing to Transform Health Education

Public presentation with Dr. Verna Billy-Minnabarriet (Ed.D)

Presented by the Faculty of Health Sciences in conjunction with Indigenous Awareness Days

March 12, 2019, 7:00 PM
Markin Hall Atrium,
University of Lethbridge

All are welcome, free admission
Free parking available after 5 pm

Dr. Verna Billy-Minnabarriet is the Vice President Academic & Strategic Partnerships at the Nicola Valley Institute of Technology (NVIT), BC's Indigenous Public Post-Secondary Institute.

She also is the Chair of the Indigenous Institutes of Adult Higher Learning (IAHLA), a consortium of Private Aboriginal Post-Secondary Institutes of BC and Chair of Education for CANDO, an Economic Development entity.

Dr. Billy-Minnabarriet is recognized nationally and internationally as an educational leader and advocate for Indigenous post-secondary education.