

Plays ^{AND} Prose WRITING COMPETITIONS

$5000 IN PRIZES!

Call for Submissions

Competitions are open to ALL U of L undergraduate students in good standing at the competition closing date. One entry per student. Student group entries welcome.

Prizes

- First prize $1,500, second prize $750, and third prize $250 for each competition.
- A public reading of the first place winners at the University of Lethbridge on Thursday, March 8, 2018.
- Winning play receives dramaturgical support from a member of the adjudicators.
- Winning story receives writing support and advice from the adjudicators.

Submission deadline: 4 pm, January 10, 2018

Play Right Prize Competition

- Refer to the submission guidelines for precise details - entries may be discarded if instructions are not followed exactly.
- Script must be intended for the stage (not television, film or other media) and have a reading time of 30-60 minutes.
- Get the submission form and complete guidelines on the Drama Resources page: uleth.ca/finearts/departments/drama/resources
- Submit entry in hardcopy to Shawn McNamara (W660) by 4 pm on January 10, 2018.

For more info contact Gail Hanrahan, gail.hanrahan@uleth.ca

Striking Prose Competition

- Entry should be no more than 6,000 words.
- Include a cover page with your name, story title and contact information (phone number and e-mail address). The story itself should only have the title of the work on the first page.
- Get a submission form and complete guidelines from outside room A840E.
- Submit entry in hardcopy to Bev Garnett (A812) by 4 pm on January 10, 2018.

For more info contact Jay Gamble, jay.gamble@uleth.ca

Generously supported by University of Lethbridge alumnus Terry Whitehead, the Play Right Prize and Striking Prose competitions aim to encourage excellence and development in student playwriting and short story writing.