

SAMWAK* 2018-2019

A community speaker series event hosted by the Department of Women & Gender Studies in downtown Lethbridge. Students, faculty, and practitioners share their research to the community. Join us in PB210, Penny Bldg at 5 St South.

2018 October 27 (Saturday) 10-11:30 am

Roxanna Epe, PhD Candidate (CSPT): Gender, Conflict and Disaster in the Philippines

2018 November 24 (Saturday) 10-11:30 am

Jacklyne Cheruiyot, MA candidate (WGST): Masculinity and Advocacy for Reproductive Health in Kenya

2019 February 16 (Saturday) 10-11:30 am

Rabindra Chaulagain, PhD candidate (CSPT): Landless, Homeless, Citizenless, Everything Less: Bhutanese Refugees in Nepal

2019 March 23 (Saturday) 10-11:30 am

Mary Siever, BA (WGST): Late Nights in Lethbridge: Parenting and the Pursuit of Postsecondary Education

Jasmine Saler, MA candidate (CSPT): Dancing into Questions & Moving through Answers: Dance as Method of inquiry

*Samwak means 'announce' in Waray dialect [Philippines]

Free admission. For details, contact glenda.bonifacio@uleth.ca