

SAMWAK* 2019

A community speaker series event hosted by the Department of Women & Gender Studies in downtown Lethbridge. Students, faculty, and practitioners share their research to the community. Join us in PB210, Penny Bldg at 5 St South.

2019 February 16 (Saturday) 10-11:30 am

Rabindra Chaulagain, PhD candidate (CSPT)

“Police and Ferocity: Perpetual Trauma in Nepali-Speaking Bhutanese Refugees in Lethbridge”

Anastasia Sereda: MA Women and Gender Studies

"Gender Obstacles and Opportunities for Women Seeking Positions of Prime Minister and President: the Case of Yulia Tymoshenko of Ukraine, 1999-2010."

2019 March 23 (Saturday) 10-11:30 am

Mary Siever, BA (WGST)

“Late Nights in Lethbridge: Parenting and the Pursuit of Postsecondary Education”

Jasmine Saler, MA Cultural, Social and Political Thought

“Dancing into Questions and Moving through Answers: Dance as Method of Inquiry”

Free admission

For details, contact glenda.bonifacio@uleth.ca

**Samwak* means ‘announce’ in Waray dialect [Philippines]