

SEPT. 21 SOCIAL JUSTICE SYMPOSIUM

World Café Sessions: 2:30-3:15 and 3:30-4:15

Drop in and participate in small group discussions about Social Justice issues. Led by faculty, student, and community groups:

Dr. Glenda Bonifacio; Dr. Harold Jansen; WUSC; Dr. Monique Giroux; ARCHES; Blackfoot Digital Library; Dr. Chris Mattatall; Dr. Lisa Howard; Dr. Mary Runte; José Luis Torres; Dr. Julie Young; Lethbridge Early Years Coalition; White Buffalo Trailblazers/Apiistamiiks; Damon Van de Graaf

Be sure to stop by the Booth Fair and connect with 20 separate campus and community organizations who work on social justice issues.

Check out the School of Liberal Education website for more details and to RSVP:

http://www.uleth.ca/liberal-education/news-andevents

Note: there is no charge to attend the symposium.

SHORT TALKS 1:15-2:20

Dr. Julie Young

(CRC, Geography)
What is Social Justice?

Dana Inkster

(Film maker)

To Give Voice: Inclusivity and the Public Record

Dr. Adriane MacDonald

(Dhillon School of Business)

The Future We Want: What Sustainable

Development Means for Social Justice

Dr. Julia Brassolotto

(Health Sciences)

Older Adults, Health Equity, and Social Justice

Dr. Noella Piquette

(Education)

Advocating: Social Justice and Diversity in Educational and Counselling Psychology

Roy Pogorzelski

(likaisskini)

A Métis Perspective on Reconciliation