Optimization Seminar
 Tuesday - Jan 22, 2013
 12:00 to 1:00 p.m.
 C553

Our weekly Optimization Research Group Seminar starts this semester on Tuesday Jan 22 at noon with Ram Dahal's presentation of Alicherry et al.

"Joint Channel Assignment and Routing for Throughput Optimization in Multiradio Wireless Mesh Networks". The theme of the paper is a generalization of the Maximum Flow Problem to account for interference and channel assignment in wireless networks. Everyone is welcome. Graduate students are especially encouraged to attend.

Light refreshments will be served.

The schedule for the seminar is available at:
