

Student Summer Job Opportunity

Travelling Lab Coat & Youth STEM Camp Instructor 4-month co-op

Destination Exploration Youth Science Program is seeking an enthusiastic individual with a passion for sharing their love of STEM/STEAM to kids. This position will be responsible for engaging grades K-8 students in a variety of classroom workshops as well as on-campus day camps between April 23rd and August 23rd, 2019. Spend time travelling to different classrooms and schools exploring science and technology with students. Then have a blast in the second half of the summer while working with kids in our community leading camp. We'll discover the world around us in cool and crazy ways using all things STEAM! As a member of Destination Exploration, you will not only become part of a dynamic team of instructors at the U of L, but be part of a national network of science outreach programs under Actua, Canada's largest STEM outreach organization.

Duties:

- Develop, prep and deliver our Traveling Lab Coats workshops, delivered to K-8 students in Lethbridge and its surrounding area (this program requires travel, which is reimbursed at a set mileage rate)
- Develop, prep and deliver week-long summer science, social science or technology camps on campus to children aged 5 to 16.
- Work collaboratively with other instructors to develop activities and to create a safe, educational and fun environment for the campers.
- Effectively supervise all participants at all times while encouraging interactive learning and a team atmosphere.

Qualifications:

- Experience working with school aged children
- Knowledge of the Alberta Learning Curriculum
- Experience developing educational material (lesson plans, activity development) preferred
- Have a strong background in a science related discipline
- Possess a current First Aid Certification and a clean criminal record check
- Have a valid Driver's License and the ability to travel – personal vehicle is an asset
- Have the ability to effectively communicate with teachers and faculty and to act as an Ambassador of the U of L within our community
- Be creative, resourceful and a team player

Hours for this position are typically between 8:30am and 4:30pm and the wage is $16.00/hour.
