Job Description

Who we are

We are more than just airplanes and tarmacs. Our purpose travels beyond our runway and into the communities we serve. Whether you work with us, travel with us, or dream with us, our purpose is to provide a remarkable experience. We are about connections, stories and life defining adventures made possible by the work we do.

The Calgary Airport Authority is made up of over 250 remarkable people committed to delivering great results as they work to develop one of Canada's busiest airport. We manage and operate YYC Calgary International Airport as well as Springbank Airport. To create a world-class experience, we collaborate with many partners - from airlines to customer service and government agencies to food and retail outlets. We want to propel YYC forward as the desired first stop to the rest of the world. We offer great benefits, flexible schedules, and the chance to work at a major international airport, making a difference to the community we serve. So, what's holding you back from becoming part of something amazing?

Note: Students must be enrolled in a Co-op Program at an accredited post-secondary institution.
