University of Lethbridge highlights for the week of April 15 to 22

The University of Lethbridge has several events lined up this week that may be of interest to your readers, viewers and listeners. Members of the media who are interested in covering these events are encouraged to contact the individual event organizer directly.

Library Stress-Free Zone

Monday and Tuesday, April 15 and 16, 6 to 10:30 p.m., Level 10 (Alcove), Library

Instead of an escape room, the U of L library offers students an escape space. The stress-free zone gives them a chance to escape the pressures of final exams. The clues are all out in the open, including coffee, snacks, games, movies and a Lego table.

The Geopolitical Production of Trust Discourses at the Finnish-Russian Border

Tuesday, April 16, 1:30 to 3 p.m., Andy's Place, AH100, Anderson Hall

Recent events like the Ukrainian crisis of 2013-2014, the refugee crisis of 2015, the recent terror attacks on European soil and the Brexit negotiations have sparked a crisis of trust towards politicians and institutions in EU member states. Dr. Katharina Koch, a visiting researcher at the University of Calgary, will talk about the role of trust in cross-border cooperation.
