University of Lethbridge highlights for the week of December 2 to 8

The University of Lethbridge has several events lined up this week that may be of interest to your readers, viewers and listeners. Members of the media who are interested in covering these events are encouraged to contact the individual event organizer directly.

Pop-up Study Skills Table

Monday to Friday, Dec. 2 to 6, 10:30 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m., Alcove, Level 10, Library

Students facing final exams can get help from peer learning mentors. Peer learning mentors are U of L students who have been trained in learning strategies. They can help students build study plans, tackle procrastination and more. Best of all, they know what it's like to learn, study and overcome obstacles.

The National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women

Friday, Dec. 6, 8 a.m. to 11 p.m., Women's Peace Garden, Level 10 South, Library

Everyone is invited to pay tribute to the 14 women who were murdered in the mass shooting at École Polytechnique in Montréal on Dec. 6, 1989 and to remember those who have been impacted by gender-based violence. Each planter in the Women's Peace Garden commemorates one of the women lost in the shooting. This is an informal drop-in event.
