

Peter & the Wolf Pieces for Storyboard (cut these out)

**NOTE: the words in ( ) tell you which music clip to play (see website on your storyboard for the music clips).*

Early one morning, Peter took a walk beside a stream, into a big green meadow (play PETER clip*). As he entered the meadow, he saw a little bird sitting in a tree not too far away, chirping merrily to herself. (BIRD) Soon a duck came waddling by on his way to the stream. (DUCK) When the little bird saw the duck, she flew down and began arguing with him. "How can you be a bird if you can not fly?" the bird asked. The duck replied angrily "How can you be a bird if you can not swim?" and he dove into the water.

From a distance, Peter noticed a big cat creeping through the grass toward the two arguing birds. The cat was stalking the little bird and thinking, "They are so busy arguing, that they won't even notice me, so I'll sneak up and grab that little bird!" (CAT)

Suddenly, Grandfather came up, having noticed that Peter was in the meadow by himself. He was angry because Peter was never supposed to go into the meadow alone. He scolded Peter and took him home. (GRANDFATHER)

After they left, a hungry wolf came out of the forest. (WOLF) The cat sprang up a tree, the bird flew high overhead, and the duck got so excited that she jumped out of the stream! The duck tried to escape, but the wolf swallowed her in one gulp.

Peter saw the whole thing from his house, so he ran to get some rope. (PETER) Without the slightest fear, he climbed out onto a tree. The wolf was now standing under it, watching the cat and the bird, hoping for another snack! Peter told the little bird to fly down around the hungry wolf while he used rope to try to catch him. While the wolf was distracted, he let the rope down ... and caught the wolf by the tail!

Just then, some hunters came out of the woods shooting their guns, looking for the wolf. (HUNTERS) Peter said "Stop, Stop! You don't need to shoot him, because I caught him. Let's take him to the zoo!"

And so, off they went in a merry procession. Peter at the head, the hunters leading the wolf, and the Grandfather and cat walking side by side. The little bird flew overhead and chirped "aren't we smart, Peter? See what we have caught!" (HUNTES PROCESSION CLIP)

And they say, if you listen closely, you can still head the sound of the duck, quacking inside the wolf!
