

Alex Decoteau Award of Honour Value – $5,000

20/21

The Alex Decoteau Award of Honour was created to recognize members of the Canadian Armed Forces who have served in designated military operations to support their post-secondary pursuits in Alberta. The award is also available where a Canadian Armed Forces member is disabled as a result of participation in Canadian Armed Forces Training in Canada. Additionally, the award can be provided to support immediate family members pursuing post-secondary education in Alberta where the Canadian Armed Forces member is the deceased or disabled.

Eligibility Criteria

An applicant who is a Canadian Armed Forces Member must be a returning soldier who:

- actively served in designated military operations in the Canadian Armed Forces (Regular or Reserves), or
- · was permanently disabled as a result of participation in the Canadian Armed Forces training in Canada.

An applicant who is a family member of a Canadian Armed Forces Member must be a spouse/common-law partner or child of a Canadian Armed Forces soldier who:

- is deceased or permanently disabled while serving or as a result of a designated military operation, or
- is deceased or permanently disabled as a result of participation in Canadian Armed Forces training in Canada.

Applicants must be currently enrolled in a public post-secondary institution in Alberta in a post-secondary program that leads to an academic credential (e.g. journeyperson certificate, certificate, diploma, or degree including graduate programs).

An individual may receive a lifetime maximum of one (1) award.

Application Process

Up to 200 awards are available annually.

All applicants must submit:

- · a completed and signed application form, and
- Member's Personnel Record Resume (MPRR) for verification of military service dates and designated military operation.

An applicant who is a Canadian Armed Forces member must submit:

Proof of disability, if applicable. The document should indicate if disability was the result of participation in Canadian Armed Forces training in Canada. Please indicate the nature of the disability. Disability-related documents may be obtained from Veterans Affairs Canada.

An applicant who is a family member of a Canadian Armed Forces member must submit:

• Proof of death or disability. The document should indicate if the death or disability was the result of having served in the designated military operation or Canadian Armed Forces training in Canada. If a disability, please indicate the nature of the disability. Disability-related documents may be obtained from Veterans Affairs Canada.

NOTE: Current and past designated operations of the Canadian Armed Forces are listed on the Government of Canada website.
