Department of Drama readying to present first Mainstage production through live, online format

The stage may have changed, but the talents remain the same! The Department of Drama is rising to the challenge of presenting its first Mainstage production of the 2020-2021 season online, for a live performance that is not to be missed.

Identity, a devised work, directed by Jay Whitehead, is an honest, truthful and passionate theatre experience presented November 17 – 21, at 7:30 p.m. nightly.

“The process has been emotional, and the students have been incredibly courageous,” says Whitehead. “The topics we present, surrounding identity and sexuality, are topics that I am passionate about and are very relevant to the students in the cast.”

Media are invited to attend a virtual media call, Thursday, November 12 at 11 a.m. at: <https://uleth.zoom.us/j/94907456690> (Meeting ID: 949 0745 6690)

Cast member and drama student Kacie Hall and director Jay Whitehead will be available for comments, and a video clip revealing a sneak-peek of the production will be provided to those interested.

Tickets for Identity are currently on sale online only at ulethbridge.ca/tickets. Tickets are $10 per pass with visa or mastercard. Patrons are encouraged to watch the production on a desktop or laptop – viewing experiences for Identity are not recommended on tablets or smartphones.
