University of Lethbridge highlights for the week of April 12 to 17, 2021

The University of Lethbridge has several events lined up this week that may be of interest to your readers, viewers and listeners. Members of the media who are interested in covering these events are encouraged to contact the individual event organizer directly.

Integra Contemporary Electroacoustics Ensemble — Remote Tuesday, April 13, 7:30 p.m., online

Everyone is welcome to attend this telematic concert featuring the talented members of the Integra Contemporary Electroacoustics Ensemble under the direction of Dr. D. Andrew Stewart. Reflecting on themes of remoteness, the ensemble guides audiences on a sensory and immersive auditory journey. More details are available on the Notice Board.

Last Lecture — Unexpected Journeys Wednesday, April 14, 1 to 4 p.m., online

Remember being asked the question “where do you see yourself in five years?” For most of us, life rarely turns out as planned and for these professors, this rings true. Everyone is welcome to join the virtual format as professors and instructors reflect and impart their lessons in life and academia for the 2021 Last Lecture Event. Five of the U of L’s brightest minds will share their Unexpected Journeys, including alum Jason Schilling (BFA/BEd '94) as master of ceremonies, followed by Yvonne Tiger, Dr. Katharina Stevens (philosophy), Brendan Cummins (BA '16, MA '18) (School of Liberal Education), Dr. Steven Mosimann (chemistry & biochemistry) and Dr. Louise Barrett (psychology). More details are available on the Notice Board and you can add the event to your calendar.
