

Ecumenical Campus Ministry is hiring

Position - Co-ordinator of the Kerber Friendship Programme

This is an 8 month contract beginning September, 2021 and running until April 2022 and paying $6000 total.

The Kerber Friendship Programme is a programme linking students from the University of Lethbridge with local families for connection and support during the academic year. Normally volunteers have students over for dinner once a month and reach out once a week. Participants also gather for social events on campus. The programme will be modified as necessary to abide with covid precautions.

The co-ordinator is responsible for

- Advertising the programme among students and registering interested students
- Advertising the programme among potential volunteers and signing them up
- Matching students with volunteers
- Providing orientation for volunteers
- Organizing social events
- Overseeing the ongoing linking of students with volunteers
- Evaluating the programme at the end of the academic year
- Assisting with the grant reporting for the programme funders

The co-ordinator works with and reports to the chaplain, Erin Phillips. The hours are flexible and at the discretion of the co-ordinator under this contract.

Interested applicants should send their resumes to phillips@uleth.ca. Deadline is July 30th
