COHT Fall 2014 Community Workshop

The University of Lethbridge's Centre for Oral History and Tradition, in partnership with the Galt Museum & Archives, is offering a two-part, practical, hands-on workshop to instruct participants in the practice, ethics, and logistics of oral history interviewing. The workshop leaders are university scholars and museum archivists with professional and scholarly experience in oral history-based research.

Workshop Session #1

In the first session, participants will brainstorm for their own project, cover topics such as "what is oral history?", and participate in practice interviews.

Friday, November 7th 2014, 1:00 - 4:00 pm.

Galt Museum & Archives, Servus Credit Union Learning Studio

Workshop Session #2

The second session includes a self-evaluation and discussion of the transcription process, as well as further instruction on developing and revising an oral history project.

Friday, November 14th 2014, 1:00 - 4:00 pm (Nutrition break included)

Galt Museum & Archives, Servus Credit Union Learning Studio

Cost for both sessions $70 (+ GST); $25 (+ GST) for Students and Seniors
