

THE ROSSLAND GOLD FEVER FOLLIES AUDITIONS

LOOKING FOR SUMMER EMPLOYMENT?

WANT TO WORK AT YOUR CRAFT AND GET PAID?!

JOIN THE CAST OF
THE ROSSLAND GOLD
FEVER FOLLIES
IN ITS 38TH SEASON
(minus 2020!)

WHERE: Rossland, BC

≈ historical gold mining city & Canada's mountain bike capital nestled in the heart of the Kootenays

WHAT: A historical musical theatre summer show based on the gold rush days of the 1890s

ACTOR'S SALARY: a guaranteed salary of $7500 for the season (PLUS free accommodation for non-locals)

SEASON: June 3 - August 25, 2024

- Rehearsal schedule runs from June 3 – June 29
- Performance season opens June 29 and ends August 24 (no matinee on June 29)
- End of season "clean-up" is August 25

We typically perform 2 shows a day, 5 days a week, with Sundays and Mondays off.

An average work day is approximately 5-6 hours a day.

The rehearsal schedule varies.

Actors should expect to have approximately 300 hours of work (and "play").

Actors in female roles, in particular, will want to be in good physical (cardio) shape upon arrival as they will be learning the cancan.

** WE WILL NOT BE CONDUCTING ANY LIVE AUDITIONS THIS YEAR.
ALL AUDITIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED IN VIDEO FORM & SHOULD INCLUDE:

1. short monologue
2. song of your choice (with accompaniment) PLUS the Canadian Anthem (sung a cappella)
3. dance and/or other musical talents

***Please include a headshot and resumé and contact information for at least 2 references***

*Our shows ALWAYS include a couple of cancan numbers, and whenever possible, some tap numbers.
Therefore, anyone auditioning for a female role is encouraged to have a short dance piece prepared that demonstrates their ability to do a high kick.*

The ability to do the splits (even fake ones), and/or a cartwheel (or other gymnastic abilities) can be demonstrated separately.

All candidates are encouraged to demonstrate any dance skills, especially tap.

Dance training is available....when required.
