Career Fair — southern Alberta’s largest hiring event — open to the public and welcomes all participants

On the look for a summer job? Maybe you’re interested in exploring future career options. The University of Lethbridge’s Winter Career Fair provides an excellent opportunity to build your network, ask questions and seek employment.

“We will see more than 70 organizations represented, including everything from school boards to police services, provincial and federal government agencies and more,” says Jason Kirbyson, events and outreach coordinator for Career Bridge. “We expect about 2,500 students will seize this opportunity to speak directly to employers about their needs, how to apply for positions and even get hired.”

WHAT: Winter Career Fair 2025

WHEN: Wednesday, Jan. 22, 2025, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

WHERE: University of Lethbridge Centre for Sport and Wellness

Open to the public, it is recommended participants come equipped with an updated resume and cover letter, an updated LinkedIn page and are dressed professionally.

This is the chance to explore summer jobs, career options, and network with 70+ organizations. For more visit the Career Fair web page.
