

Heather Evans

Associate Vice President, Human Resources

Heather has been working in the Human Resources department at the University since 2018. In her role as Associate Vice-President, Human Resources, Heather collaborates with the EDI office and the University community to weave EDI into HR programs and services that enable the University to recruit, retain and engage a diverse workforce, foster a workplace of belonging and inclusivity, and ensure all employees feel valued and respected.