

Policy: NURS 4922

Professional Preceptorship Placement and Employment

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this policy is to outline clear expectations in the practice placement process for the Bachelor of Nursing (BN) Programs NURS 4922: Professional Preceptorship course.

DEFINITIONS:

N/A

POLICY SCOPE:

This policy applies to all BN Programs students engaged in the NURS 4922: Professional Preceptorship course.

SPECIFICS OF THE POLICY:

1. BN Programs students are required to complete the NURS 4922 Professional Preceptorship Placement Preference Form, indicating up to four preferences for their preceptorship placement.
2. Students must seek opportunities for practice learning during the professional preceptorship that differ from their employment setting.
3. Students are not permitted to do their preceptorship on a unit with immediate family (regardless of position). Students cannot be precepted, assessed or evaluated by a relative.
4. Violation of this policy will result in students not being granted a preceptorship placement or being removed from an assigned placement.
