

Safe Work Procedures - Airless Sprayer

General/Brief Description of task	Use of Airless Sprayer for painting
Frequency of task performed	On Demand
Hazards Identified	#2 – Chemical Exposure #4 – Dust / Vapours #8 – Eye Injury #9 – Repetitive Strain / Motion #10 – Lifting
P.P.E. required: Special tools required (if any)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Respiratory Protection • Eye Protection • Disposable Coveralls • Rubber Gloves
Safe Work Procedure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Visually inspect area for possible hazards • The operation of the Airless Sprayer requires two people • Refer to Safe Work Practices on "Proper Lifting Techniques" as found in Appendix 'A' • Switch off duties between workers at appropriate intervals in order to avoid personal injuries due to repetitive strain / motion • Refer to MSDS and WHMIS labels for any necessary precautions to take and specific PPE needed • Refer to Safe Work Practice for "Cleaning Solvents and Flammables" as found in Appendix 'A' • Refer to Safe Work Practice for "Flammable and Toxic Materials" as found in Appendix 'A' • Ensure surface is cleaned and sanded prior to painting. Refer to Safe Work Practices for "Use of Electrical Extension Cords" as found in Appendix 'A' • Refer to Safe Work Practices for "Electrical Safety" as found in Appendix 'A' • Refer to and follow Operator's Manual for the Airless Sprayer