Community builder Ian Hill to address Faculty of Management students

WHO: Ian Hill, founder of The Changing Point

WHEN: Friday, March 27, 12 p.m.

WHERE: Markin Hall Atrium

WHAT: Hill, a business leader and humanitarian, will be in Lethbridge Friday for a workshop with students in the Faculty of Management and to deliver a keynote address Friday night at the Management Students' Society year-end gala.

He will discuss the leadership qualities needed in today's world and how to best marshal human capital to get people from diverse backgrounds working towards a common goal. He'll share his own experiences as he talks about ways to better the community and the world. He says it's the younger generation that provides the challenge to move society and build communities that all would want to live in.
