

Aperture Park Dining Plan Contract and Regulations 2013-2014

The University of Lethbridge offers a Residence Dining Plan to all residence students in Kainai House in Aperture Park:

I. The Residence Dining Plan is Mandatory

The Residence Dining Plan is MANDATORY for all students staying in Kainai House in Aperture Park. No exceptions.

All students living in Kainai House in Aperture Park must participate in the Aperture Park Residence Dining Plan.

* IMPORTANT  Students must select and purchase a dining plan prior to arrival and check-in at Housing to enable move-in to Residence.

Participation will be effective from the start of each term, or later, based on the License agreement with Housing, and will continue until the expiry date of this License agreement.

Aperture Park Plan (Mandatory Minimum Plan for Kainai Residents)

Value: $2,046.00

Kainai House suites include limited kitchen facilities in each unit.

The Aperture Park Residence Dining Plan is designed for students living in these units who may do some of their own cooking and do not plan to remain on campus most weekends and holidays, and those students with more modest appetites. Funds can be added at any time to this Plan.

Budgeted minimum consumption is based on $60.18/week, based on a five (5) day week.

II. All Residence Dining Plans must be PAID IN FULL PRIOR TO MOVE-IN TO HOUSING.

METHOD OF PAYMENT

* IMPORTANT NOTICE **
 NO CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS ACCEPTED ****

* PAYMENT OPTIONS **
CHEQUE, DEBIT or CASH

DEBIT ADVISORY

DEBIT payment is accepted but you may need to increase your daily debit limit. Debit limits generally have daily maximums [example: $500 per day] and may not be sufficient to pay your Plan IN FULL Cheques are to be made payable to University of Lethbridge.

RESIDENCE DINING PLANS MUST BE PAID IN FULL PRIOR TO MOVING INTO HOUSING.

NSF Cheques.

All NSF cheques are subject to a $75.00 administration fee that must be paid in cash and will result in the suspending access to the student Residence Dining Plan account until the account is PAID IN FULL.

III. Balances and Carry-Forward

Account balances from the first fall semester (September) will be transferred to the second spring semester (January) if the student remains a resident of Kainai House in Aperture Park.

Balances at the end of April cannot be carried over and are automatically forfeited, as required by Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) regulations and University Policy.

IV. Withdrawal from Residence Dining Plans

A processing fee of $75 will be charged for early withdrawals for reasons other than academic withdrawal. Partial refunds may be issued to participants upon termination of the License Agreement with Housing.

Aperture Park Plan (Mandatory Minimum Plan for Kainai Residents)

Minimum consumption is based on $60.18/week.

CRA Regulations – Withdrawal & GST Penalties

In cases in which the average weekly consumption falls below the CRA weekly minimum, withdrawal from the Residence Dining Plan may require chargeback of GST on all purchases from the commencement of the Plan to the date of Withdrawal. This chargeback will be deducted from the refund, along with any other penalties and fees.

CRA Minimum Values for 2013-14 Residence Dining Plans (to qualify for GST exempt status) are calculated as follows:

Average Daily Use: (3 meals) Dining Plan use: $21.81

Average Weekly Minimum: Ten (10) meals per week average: $72.70

Average Yearly Minimum: Thirty-four (34) week minimum: $2,472.00

GST Exempt

Residence Dining Plans valued at less than the Thirty-four (34) week minimum do not qualify for GST exempt status. The Aperture Park Plan does NOT qualify for GST exempt status.

Forfeit of Unused Value

According to University Policy, residual values remaining on your Residence Dining Plan must be forfeited and cannot be refunded or carried over to the next academic year.

V. Your University ID Card is your Residence Dining Plan Card

Adding Funds to Your Residence Dining Plan

Adding value to your Residence Dining Plan can be done at the Food Service Office (A681) in University Hall
