

| Program  | Major   | Additional Requirements: High School Courses (or equivalent) |              |              |                |                |    | Additional Requirements: Other |  |
|--|---|--|--------------|--------------|----------------|----------------|----|--------------------------------|--|
|  |   | Biology 30   | Chemistry 30 | English 30-1 | Mathematics    |                |    |                                | Physics 30   |
|  |   |  |              |              | 30-1 or 30-2   | 30-1           | 31 |                                |  |
| Faculty of Health Sciences  |   |  |              |              |                |                |    |                                |  |
| B.H.Sc.  | Aboriginal Health <sup>1</sup>  |  |              | ◆            |                |                |    |                                | • Spoken English Language Proficiency  |
|  | Addictions Counselling <sup>2</sup>   |  |              | ◆            |                |                |    |                                | • Admission Statement• Spoken English Language Proficiency   |
|  | Public Health <sup>1</sup>  | ◆  | ◆            | ◆            | ◆              |                |    |                                | • Spoken English Language Proficiency  |
| B.N.   | Nursing <sup>3</sup>  | ◆  | ◆            | Min. 60%     | ◆              |                |    |                                | • Spoken English Language Proficiency• Minimum Overall Admission Average:High School: CompetitivePost Secondary: Competitive |
| <sup>1</sup> Aboriginal Health and Public Health majors - When the number of qualified applicants exceeds the number of available spots, the minimum admission average may be higher.<sup>2</sup> Applicants applying to the B.H.Sc. (Addictions Counselling)/B.A. (Psychology) program are required to have Biology 30 and Mathematics 30-1 or 30-2.<sup>3</sup> Competitive average is calculated on five courses - four required high school courses indicated above plus one other 30-level course. For post-secondary applicants, a grade in an approved university-level course (minimum 3.00 credit hours) in the same disc of the high school mark, if it is more advantageous. The fifth course may be substituted by any minimum 3.00 credit hour university-level course. |   |  |              |              |                |                |    |                                |  |
| Dhillon School of Business  |   |  |              |              |                |                |    |                                |  |
| B.Mgt.   | AccountingEconomicsFinance  |  |              |              |                | ◆ <sup>1</sup> |    |                                | • Minimum Overall Admission AveragePost Secondary: Competitive   |
|  | Agricultural Enterprise ManagementComputer ScienceGeneral ManagementHuman Resource Management and Labour RelationsIndigenous Governance and Business ManagementInternational ManagementMarketingPolitical Science |  |              |              | ◆ <sup>1</sup> |                |    |                                | • Minimum Overall Admission AveragePost Secondary: Competitive   |
| <sup>1</sup> Applicants applying to a B.Mgt. program as a second degree are not required to have Mathematics 30-1 or 30-2.   |   |  |              |              |                |                |    |                                |  |