English for Academic Purposes (Non-Credit) Program Admission to the EAP program does not constitute admission to an undergraduate or graduate program at the University of Lethbridge. Applicants to an undergraduate or graduate program must meet all admission requirements specific to their program of study.	April 30, 2026	April 30, 2026	April 30, 2026	Lethbridge

¹ Application deadline – this is the date by which the completed application for admission, including the application fee, must be received by the University of Lethbridge.

² Admission decision document deadline – this is the deadline by which Admissions must receive documentation (www.uleth.ca/ross/admissions/undergrad/documents) confirming that all admission requirements have been met or will be met by the final document deadline. Conditional admission decisions may be made for qualified applicants on the basis of interim/unofficial documents received by this date.

³ Final official document deadline – this is the date by which all final, official documents (www.uleth.ca/ross/admissions/undergrad/documents) must be received by the University of Lethbridge. An application is not complete until all final, official documents have been received by the University of Lethbridge. University of Lethbridge Advanced English for Academic Purposes (EAP) results will be accepted from the summer term EAP classes for admission to the subsequent fall term, and from the fall term EAP classes for the subsequent winter term. All other documents pertaining to English Language Proficiency (e.g., TOEFL) must be received no later than the preceding August 1 for fall admission, or November 15 for winter admission.

Note: When a deadline date occurs on a weekend (Saturday or Sunday) or Statutory or Civic holiday, the deadline will be the next working day. For conditional admission, ELP and unofficial transcript showing all courses completed with final GPA must be submitted to Admissions prior to the first day of class of the term of admission.

Application and document deadlines vary by campus, program, and term, as well as your academic background and Canadian residency status.
